

State of geomorphological research in 2018

April 25-27, 2018, Vılanec, Czech Republic
49.3329583N, 15.5777169E

The forthcoming 18th annual conference of the Czech Association of Geomorphologists will be held in the heart of the Czech Republic in close vicinity of the Vysočina Geopark which is spread out in the landscape of the Bohemian-Moravian Highland.

Contributions both from basic and applied research in the field of geomorphology and related disciplines are welcomed. We hope the conference will become an inspiring event through exchanging ideas, knowledge and connecting people.
